REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The cited prior art fails to teach claimed invention alone or in combination.

The invention as claimed is a system and method of updating remote XML document by loading the portion of structure of remote document, creating a logical document object model (DOM), Mutating the document, updating the DOM, creating event table reflecting mutation or change, creating second event table from first event table with smallest number of mutation events to be transmitted and transmitting the event table and related data for updating.

The cited prior art in general teaches XML document and method of creating DOM and updating the DOM with changes. However, it fails to teach alone or in combination creating second event table from first event table with smallest number of mutations as claimed. Therefore the claimed inventions are allowable over the cited prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Sanjiv D. Shah whose telephone number is (703) 305-8355. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F 9-5:30.
